

7.1.3 E Water Recycling System in HEI

Water harvesting system is one of the best methods adopted by Nirmala college of commerce. WasteWater is reused for plantations after the process. Nirmala college of commerce has a proper water harvesting system through which water is collected in water tanks. The stored water is then used for the washroom and gardening purpose.

