A. IMPORTANCE TO ADHERENCE TO THE ACADEMIC CALENDAR

The academic calendar is for this kind of planning. It provides the ability to combine multiple calendars such as teaching, learning activities, curriculum activities, Co-curriculum activities, and extension– community schedules of the teachers' students, and parents. Adhering to the academic calendar is very important. It is useful for noting your free time and scheduling study sessions over the week, over the month, over the term, and of course over the academic year. Adherence to the academic calendar helps stakeholders to optimize time by scheduling and prioritizing critical tasks, studies, notes and activities. Effective time management ensures efficient output.
