

500 words description-institution integrates cross cutting issues relevant to Professional ethics, Gender, Human values and Environment sustainability

Nirmala College of commerce, Malad - Mumbai drives for quality education through guidelines (7 criteria of NAAC) cross cutting issues for curriculum enrichment is one of the matrices for curriculum delivery, curriculum planning and implementation. According to the NAAC cross cutting issues at topics that are relevant to the curriculum and should be integrated into it as Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Value And Environment Sustainability

According to this Institute, Cross- cutting issues are topics that affect all aspects of a program. Therefore HEI integrated CCI into all stages of a program through all stages of students for the program as B.com 1st year 2nd year and 3rd year students collectively.

To integrate cross cutting issues HEI organised induction programs formed as Student's Development Program on Cross Cutting Issues for 6 days. This college and another Educational Institute named as St. Rock's Degree College of Commerce and Science, Borivali (West) combinedly organised 6 days SDP on CCI. It is under the Faculty Exchange Resource Exchange Program.

The First session is on cross cutting issues Meaning, Types and Importance. While the Second day Skill Development Program continued with objectives of Cross Cutting Issues in Curricular Enrichment. The Third session of SDP was on the topic Significance of Professional Ethics and Commerce. Next day the schedule deals with the significance of gender and Commerce. The fifth station of SDP deals with human values in commerce. The last day of SDP was all about significance of environment and sustainability in commerce

The SDP is carried out in the offline session where the expert teachers of both host and MOU College are involved in directing the students about CCI. All students are asked to participate in this Cross Cutting Issues which definitely helps the students to raise as good students, better citizens and best Indian in his or her life.
